UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

STAFF SERGEANT SHARAY “RAY” WILLIAMS

Staff Sergeant Sharay Williams is the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge (NCOIC) of Cadet Actions at Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps Detachment 25, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. As the Cadet Actions NCOIC, she oversees daily operations of 175 cadets and manages personnel records for cadre, Air Force Institute of Technology, Nurse Enlisted Commissioning Program, and Senior Leader Enlisted Commissioning Program students. She ensures cadets are medically cleared, reviewer of all travel vouchers, contracting and commissioning, and the liaison between Detachment 025 and the Holm Center.

Sergeant Williams entered the Air Force on September 27, 2011 from Los Angeles, California. She completed technical training at Keesler Air Force Base (AFB) from November 2011 to March 2012 as a Knowledge Operations Manager. She then went on to her first base at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base. Sergeant Williams spent one year there training with the Immersions Program at the 355th Communications Squadron then moving to the 355th Equipment Maintenance Squadron, the 3rd largest maintenance squadron in the Air Force. Sergeant Williams spent the next two years there in the Commander’s Support Staff. In 2015, Sergeant Williams moved to Ramstein Air Base, Germany and became a Postal Service Center Specialist for Kapuan Post Office. After three years of postal, Sergeant Williams went on to Joint Base Lewis-McChord and became the Combat Maintenance Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge for the 22nd Special Tactics Squadron then the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of Administration. In 2020, she went on to the 5th Air Support Operations Squadron as the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge of the Commander’s Support Staff.

During her time at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, SSgt Williams was a dedicated Victim’s Advocate. Her time and love for what she did was honored by receiving the 2020 Team McChord’s Victim’s Advocate of the Year Award.
