MEMORANDUM FOR THE 25TH CADET WING

FROM: CADET COLONEL STEPHEN C. EPP

SUBJECT: Annex K-Cadet Flight Points

To maintain high morale and participation, the entire 25th Cadet Wing will compete for flight points in two categories: honor points and warrior points. These honors are based on performance achieved at the individual and flight level during the Fall 2020 semester. Points will be annotated and tallied up throughout the Fall 2020 semester and will conclude in rewarding the flight with the most honor points per cadet with the distinction of Honor Flight, and the most Warrior points per cadet the distinction of Warrior Flight. All flight commanders will send weekly updates of the activities that were performed throughout the week in their Weekly Action Reports. Flight Commanders are solely responsible for reporting points to the Standards and Evaluations Officer. Points will be awarded on the following material (list not all-inclusive):

1. PFA: Overall average flight scores on the Midterm and Final PFA will yield the following amount of points:

- a. 1st overall average score: 40 Warrior Points
- b. 2nd overall average score: 30 Warrior Points
- c. 3rd overall average score: 20 Warrior Points
- d. 4th overall average score: 10 Warrior Points

2. Flight Challenges: Placement in Flight Challenges to include sport days, ring of fire, hours worked outside of PT, etc. will yield to following amount of points:

- a. 1st: 20 Warrior Points
- b. 2nd: 10 Warrior Points
- c. 3rd: 5 Warrior Points

3. Esprit de Corps: As an ongoing competition, flights will be encouraged to participate in Booster club events to not only raise money for Booster club, but also raise morale between the AES years. At the end of the semester, the flight with the most money raised will receive that following points:

- a. 1st: 50 Warrior Points
- b. 2nd: 25 Warrior Points
- c. 3rd: 15 Warrior Points

4. Open Rank Inspections: A passing score for each individual constitutes receiving two or less discrepancies on rated areas; penalties will be enforced if uniform standards are not followed. Any flights working together to avoid receiving a single gig will earn a 100 Honor Point bonus. The flights, which earn the least number of gigs, will receive the following amount of points:

- a. 1st: 40 Honor Points
- b. 2nd: 30 Honor Points
- c. 3rd: 20 Honor Points
- d. 4th: 10 Honor Points

5. Attendance: Attendance points will be based on the end of semester attendance percentage of each flight for PT and LLAB; these points will exclude those who have dropped the program throughout the semester. Attendance percentage points will be counted separately for the Spring and Fall semesters.

- a. 1st overall average score: 40 Honor Points
- b. 2nd overall average score: 30 Honor Points
- c. 3rd overall average score: 20 Honor Points
- d. 4th overall average score: 10 Honor Points

6. Recruiting, Community Service and Military Relations Events: Flight will receive three honor points per cadet per hour for any of the three categories listed in this section. Community service and recruiting hours that count towards Honor points are capped at 15 hours per cadet. It is the responsibility of the respective flight commanders to report their tallied points to the CWV Officer by the last Monday before Change of Command. Points will also be submitted to the CWV during the Midterm and Final Continuity checks.

7. Other: These points can be from some of the following but not limited to: spirit missions, flight t-shirts, flight warrior runs, individual cadet performance (COM/COS), athletic competitions, knowledge bowl, etc. The categorization of additional points will be at the discretion of the Wing Commander. The Wing Commander will always look for new opportunities to award flight points within limits.

8. Semester scores for categories mentioned throughout will be tracked until the completion of the Fall 2020 semester. The Fall 2020 semester scores will be tallied, and awards will be determined at the end of the semester, reflecting awards and point values, to determine the Honor and Warrior Flights. Standings will be posted in the Detachment by the Detachment Maintenance Officer on the 1st of every month so that flights can see where they stand.

9. WARNING: Advances made to get ahead that are done in poor spirit, will result in a loss of points.
