TECHNICAL SERGEANT NYQUETIN “Q” PARKS

Technical Sergeant NyQuetin D. Parks is the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge (NCOIC) of Cadet Actions at Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps, Detachment 25, Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. As the Cadet Actions NCOIC, he oversees daily operations of 264 cadets and manages personnel records for cadre, Air Force Institute of Technology, Nurse Enlisted Commissioning Program, and Senior Leader Enlisted Commissioning Program students. He ensures cadets are medically cleared, reviewer of all travel vouchers, contracting and commissioning, and the liaison between Detachment 025 and the Holm Center.

TSgt Parks enlisted in the United States Air Force in 2012 from Las Vegas, Nevada, and reported to Basic Military Training at Lackland AFB, Texas, in March 2013. He attended Knowledge Operations Manager technical training and graduated in July 2013. His first assignment was to Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson, Anchorage, Alaska, where he served three years with the 673d Civil Engineer Squadron as a Knowledge Operations Manager in the Commander's Support Staff. In August 2016, he was assigned to Los Angeles AFB, California, as an Administrative Technician for the Space and Missile Systems Center Director of Staff, providing administrative and communications support to two general officers. In 2019, TSgt Parks was hand-selected to serve as the Administrator for the Office of Special Investigations at Royal Air Force Base Alconbury, United Kingdom. After two years, he transferred to Seymour Johnson AFB, North Carolina, where he served as the NCOIC of the 4th Civil Engineer Squadron Commander's Support Staff. While assigned there, he deployed to Prince Sultan Air Base, Saudi Arabia. In 2023, TSgt Parks arrived at Luke AFB, Arizona, as the NCOIC of the Command Support Staff for the Air Force's largest Operations Group. In this role, he single-handedly supported 13 squadrons, 620 students, and seven partner nations.
